Dear Natalie,

Post-NECF Review of Regulatory Instruments - Draft Decision

Thank you for the opportunity to comment on ESCOSA's Draft Decision on the "Post-NECF Review of Regulatory Instruments". Envestra supports the Commission's efforts to harmonise regulation where possible and appreciates the significant progress made by the Commission thus far in its proposed changes to the regulatory instruments.

Envestra understands that this is the final consultation on the instruments before they come into effect on 1 July 2013.

The instruments which form part of this final consultation and which are relevant to Envestra comprise:

Codes

- Gas Distribution Code

Licences

- Envestra Limited Gas Distribution Licence

Guidelines

- Gas Guideline No. 1 - Regulatory Information Requirements Distribution System
- Energy Guideline No. 4 - Compliance Systems and Reporting

Policies

- Enforcement Policy

Table of Responses

Similar to Envestra's submission in March in the first round of formal consultation, attached to this letter is a Table of Responses which sets out Envestra's responses to the draft decisions made on the instruments listed above.

Further questions or comments

Envestra trusts that this final submission is of assistance to the Commission, however if you have any further queries; please contact Joanne Parry on 08 8159 1633.

Yours sincerely,

Ralph Mignone
Manager Engineering and Technical Regulation
